- The Club presented member Chris Marotta of Smithtown a scholarship check for $500. He is currently attending Stony Brook University studying Earth Sciences. Chris has been instrumental in arranging field trips for the Club in the past year as well as speaking to the Club on several occasions.

Last Meeting

- Club member Mitchell Gluck gave the attendees a very interesting and informative presentation on rubies and sapphires. He provided an array of magnificent examples of jewelry incorporating these stones. Mitch also answered the many questions raised by the members.

Next Meeting – October 18.

We will have a hands-on demonstration in creating a beaded eyeglass holder (or necklace). The cost of materials for members is $3.00 (non-members $5.00). Participants are reminded to bring their tools to the meeting.

As always, refreshments will be served.

Club Shirts

There are still a number of “logo” club shirts (all sizes) available (at our cost) for sale at $20.00. See Robert Besso if you are interested.

Club Mineral Collection on Display

The Connetquot Public Library will be displaying a portion of the Club’s collection from November 2nd to November 27th. The library is located at 760 Ocean Avenue, Bohemia, NY.

- The Audit Committee members submitted a report on the results of their detailed review of the Club’s books from January 2003 to the present. The president thanked committee members, Dorothy Scott and Candy Miller, for their work as well as Treasurer Roberta Besso for maintaining meticulous and accurate financial records for the Club.
